How to develop an Effective Business Plan

For a project or a business to be effective it is vital that a business plan is drafted to clearly define the objectives. These objectives can be short term or long term but should always include the key components of the project or business such as the key stakeholders, competitors, market trends and industrial intelligence. The basis of an effective business plan is not a complex process but is overlooked by many, resulting in a lack of clarity as to what the expected outcomes will be.

This session is designed to provide the tools and skills to increase the understanding of delegates as to what a good business plan requires and its associated business/client benefits.

Course overview – topics will include

- A simple framework that is compatible with your firm's processes and reporting
- A clear set of goals for about 3 years
- A realistic assessment of your resources
- A realistic set of priorities of what you will do and when

The process for developing you plan needs to identify

- What markets, sectors and clients you are targeting?
- What services and products you will be delivering?
- What is your operating model – how will it work?
- Why should they choose you?
- What are the forces driving change in the market or your client's world?

Presenter - Kevin McCaffrey, MyGovernance

In a 3 hour session you will learn the skills needed to develop a simple but effective business plan using examples from professional services firms and commercial organisations.

Kevin has experience in building and leading professional services teams in NZ and Asia Pacific. In his roles with PWC and EY. Kevin now runs his own consultancy specialising in governance and business strategy.

GOVERNANCE ESSENTIALS

INTERMEDIATE

For experienced practitioners who have a sound understanding but would like to further improve their skills.

4 CPD Hours

ADVANCED

For practitioners who can demonstrate an advanced level of knowledge but would like to continually refresh and build on their experience.

Fees: $3967.50 (INCL. GST)* * Price is for groups up to 25 people

Gain a sound understanding of the basics of governance, including involvement on a trust, board of a company or incorporated society.

Governance Essentials focuses on the core tasks of the director and a board.

This session will start by looking at what an individual director must do to ensure they not only meet their legal obligations but provide the appropriate leadership for the organisation.

Building on the legal obligations, consideration is then given to the role of the directors as a collective, for example a board and how they must lead the directors from a strategic point of view whilst ensuring compliance with regulations.

The course content draws on real case studies and the experience of the presenter. Delegates can expect to receive clear explanations of complex legal issues and pragmatic examples of how to manage governance processes and deal with the issues that arise.

One such issue is the vexed question of the separation of governance from managerial roles. This is dealt with using a pragmatic methodology that will enable participants to review their own organisation and understand how to ensure the parties work together effectively.

Throughout the workshop questions, debate and discussion are encouraged which makes it an interactive learning experience with useful work papers as a takeaway.

This session will continuously look at governance of not for profit organisations for parallels and differences to provide a complete picture of governance in New Zealand.

Highlights

- Understanding the responsibility of directors and trustees, and how they can effectively discharge their duties
- Learn what boards need to do effectively
- Risk management
- The role of the board v management
- Appointing the "right" directors/trustees
- Evaluating the board, and
- The eight key questions.

Intended for

- People who serve on a trust, board of a company or incorporated society or those who are seeking to do so, and
- Advisers who work with these organisations.

4 CPD Hours

Fees: $3967.50 (INCL. GST)* * Price is for groups up to 25 people

How can a law firm maintain a competitive advantage in a legal environment where clients are demanding more accountability from their external legal providers together with improved predictability and control of legal costs? Legal Project Management is a powerful tool that many law firms have turned to as a solution to delivering legal services more effectively and efficiently, and with greater client satisfaction.

Shaun Plant will host this workshop designed to provide participants with an understanding of Legal Project Management and the key skills and tools that lawyers can use to improve the way in which they manage and deliver legal services.

The workshop will be practical and interactive, including facilitated training with questions and practical exercises using Legal Project Management tools and techniques. Example Legal Project Management templates and course notes will be provided at the workshop.

Training objectives

- Gain an understanding of Legal Project Management principles, terminology, skills and processes
- Develop skills in managing legal matters within a Legal Project Management framework, and
- Develop a disciplined approach to delivering legal matters.

Course overview

- Introduction to Legal Project Management
- The Legal Project Management techniques, tools and processes to:
 - understand the client's requirements
 - initiate a project
 - plan the work that is required
 - identify and manage risks
 - communicate the project
 - monitor and control resources
 - close out the instruction, and
 - capture process assets.

Presenter - Shaun Plant Chief Legal Evangelist at LawVu

Shaun is the Chief Legal Officer providing legal advice to the organization and project management and legal technology services to legal teams across the world. Shaun has woven innovation and project management into all stages of his legal career both in private and in-house legal practice. Starting his career in contracts engineering, Shaun moved into the legal profession, with his focus on project and change management. His legal background spans public, private enterprises in environmental and project law, where he has delivered large capital construction projects.

ACCOUNTING FOR LAWYERS

INTRODUCTORY

For practitioners who would like a good foundation to improve their skills.

4 CPD Hours

Fees: $3967.50 (INCL. GST)* * Price is for groups up to 25 people

Do you look at financial information and see a blur of numbers? Like it or not, financial information is fundamental to how successful organisations operate and it's not just accountants that need to understand it. Whether it be to assess the financial standing of a potential client or to understand the commercials of a transaction, a basic knowledge of accounting is a fundamental skill for professionals. This seminar will help you understand the language of accountants, key concepts and the information presented in financial statements.

We have developed this seminar to demystify accounting for lawyers. We'll help you understand the fundamentals and share tips and tricks, and we will use the actual financial statements of a listed company as a case study to help you understand financial information to ensure you can work more effectively with numbers.

Specifically the course will cover:

- Understanding financial statements
- Accounting concepts and principles
- Interpreting financial statements and using financial ratios
- Common accounting terminology

Presenter - Ross Nelson, Partner, PwC

Ross is a Partner with the Private Business team in the Wellington PwC office. He has over 15 years experience providing tax and accounting advice to a diverse range of businesses, from privately owned businesses to large corporates. Ross has daily interactions with business owners and other non-accountants so is adept at communicating financial concepts in plain English. When he gets the chance you're most likely to find him on Wellington's south coast either diving or trying to keep up with his two young boys.
