

SUPPORTING CO-GOVERNANCE, CO-MANAGEMENT, AND CO-DESIGN: AUTHENTIC PARTNERSHIP IN A TE TIRITI-O-WAITANGI BASED SOCIETY

He Manu Korihi: Basic Te Reo Māori tools for (cool) lawyers

INTRODUCTORY

For practitioners who would like a good foundation to improve their skills.

Fees: $4,600 (Incl GST) *Price is for groups up to 20 people

DURATION

1.5 – 2 hours

In a safe environment where mistakes are encouraged and fun had, we will explore the concepts of:

- Mana
- Manaaki
- Mauri
- And pōhiri

You will be supported to create:

- A modern and culturally safe pepehā
- A custom mihi
- A plan for hui (meetings).

You will leave the session with:

- Clear next steps for your Te Reo Māori development
- Resources on hui (meetings).

Facilitator: Hamahona McNeill

Of Scottish and Tapuika descent, Hamahona is an early beneficiary of the Māori cultural renaissance of the 1970s and 1980s and has been an associate of the College of Law since 2020. He is a strong advocate of a bijural legal system, a witness to Māori thriving through tino rangatiratanga (self-determination) and has a passion for facilitating Te Tiriti-based partnerships. A school teacher by trade, Hamahona lives in Tāmaki Makaurau (Auckland) with his partner and son and works with Tahi | EY New Zealand.